

Court Dancing

Pavane, polonaise or the Viennese waltz as it was danced in the 19th century? In this class, you will learn some of the most fascinating dances of European ballrooms of the 16-19th century and a bit about their times. The choreographies are based on figures and sequences noted down by famous dance masters of the given age and are danced to authentic music.

Our classes have two objectives: to share the beauty of European court dances in their full splendour and the joy of dancing together.

We invite you to a place where you can simply feel good, enjoy classical music, and keep fit by dancing. During the class, we work on improving posture, general fitness, and movement patterns. No judgement, no expectations but we are there for you if you want to achieve more.

Would you enjoy putting yourself in the shoes of a Renaissance noblewoman or nobleman? We are also building a wardrobe of beautiful costumes inspired by paintings and illustrations from the period of the dances and organize performances for those who are interested in the immersive experience of dancing in costumes.
